"The High and the Mighty"

Considering class problems are officers Janet Poppe, Mark Peterson, Carolyn Sharp, and Dal Wylie.

In the fall of 1951, approximately 155 "Guys and Dolls" began their four grand years of high school at Mount Vernon. From the beginning the Frosh were very proud of their place in the student body, and looked forward to the year when they would be the "High and the Mighty." The "Four Aces" for the first year were: president, Kelly Molstad; vice president, Mark Peterson; secretary, Beverly Sterba; and treasurer, Joyce Dunsmore.

"No Help Wanted" was the theme of the Frosh football team as it walked off with the Northwest league title. "Four Lads" played on the Junior Varsity basketball team that year while the Varsity went all the way to State. "Side by Side" with their honorable athletes were more than forty honor students destined eventually to become members of the Torch Society.

Elected to lead the class of "55" through their second year were president, Don White; vice-president, Ted Neff; secretary, Roberta Yaxley; treasurer, Ed Watson.

"I Love a Parade!" And the Sophomores really did as they walked off with first prize at the annual school float parade. And they won another first prize with the Sophomore Assembly. As Frosh, when the class assembly was cancelled, everyone's thought was "Maybe Next Time." And so it was. They received the best assembly award given by the dramatic department. Many students, both boys and girls, were admitted into Green M that year, too. It was, however, disbanded the following year.

When the first year as upperclassmen arrived, they elected as class officers: president, Zane Frazier; vice president, Roland Wagar; secretary, Mary Lynn Affleck; treasurer, Bruce Brown.

In football that year they had many candidates for "Mr. Touchdown" of M.V.H.S. Jim Duffy, Ed Watson, Jim Eisses, Leland Shinn, Gerald Hamburg, and many other fine football players were worthy of the honor.

Leading the student body at all athletic events were song leaders: Mary Jo Gardner, Evelyn Alseth, Sheila McDonald, and Nancy Collins. Yell leaders were Sara Comings, Chuck Cass, and Joyce Pearson. Juniors, all, and they served their school well.

During the holiday season the annual Junior Thanksgiving Assembly was another success and brought out the theme of "Count Your Blessings." It wasn't a "White Christmas" but it was a merry one when the Juniors turned out in full force along with Mr. Joe Murphy to carol for the town hospitals and the rest home.

"Oop Shoop!" Basketball for '54 was upon us. More than one-half of the varsity squad was made up of Juniors who had a major responsibility in getting the Bulldogs to the District Tournament. The class was also very proud of its wrestler, Les Stimka, who won the state championship in his weight. When the strains of "Take Me Out to the Ballgame" rolled around the Juniors again gave more than their share of players to a baseball team that, with their help, won first place in the county league.

The Junior year was not only eventful in athletics but also in drama, music and scholastic attainment. Many Juniors had parts in the all-school plays. Many were in the choir, orchestra and band, and more than forty students still remained on the Honor Roll!"

"S-H-B-O-O-M-M-M!" Seniors at last!"

"Roll on to Victory" was the theme of our '54-'55 football team made up mostly of Seniors. Jim Eisses and Ed Watson were especially honored when they were placed on the All-Northwest Football Team.

Two county schools joined the M.V.H.S. Seniors for their fabulous Senior Ball "Winter Wonderland" that was held November 26. Elected from Mount Vernon for king and queen were Ron Tarry and Mary Lynne Affleck.

"Merry Christmas to You" was heard far and wide at M.V.H.S. as the Seniors put on their Senior Assembly. This was really a "real gone" assembly and the Seniors had as much fun putting it on as the student body had watching it.

As basketball season rolled around, the Seniors realized that it wouldn't be long before they would be saying "So Long" to everything at old M.V.H.S. The class of "55" had nine players on the Varsity team, and with the other players, they really made a great team.

The class of 1955 had more than forty students in Torch Society, which was one of the largest memberships in the history of the school. They also had many members in Thespians, Quill and Scroll, Band, Orchestra, and all the other school clubs.

Guiding the class through its last busy year were: president, Mark Peterson; vice-president, Dal Wylie; secretary, Carolyn Sharp; treasurer, Janet Poppe. Class advisors were: Mr. Malcolm Thomson, Mr. Rex Coslor, Miss Dana Johnson, Mrs. Marie Wick, Mr. Jack Croghan, Mr. J. Turner Pedersen, and Mr. George Mowrer.

May 26 and Commencement found each senior wishing he could "Turn Back the Hands of Time." Valedictorian John Torgeson and Salutatorian Jim Eisses were honored at traditional graduation exercises, and the next day the class of "55" bowed out, wishing teachers and students the best of everything and a wee bit tearfully asking "Please Remember" the Class of 1955.

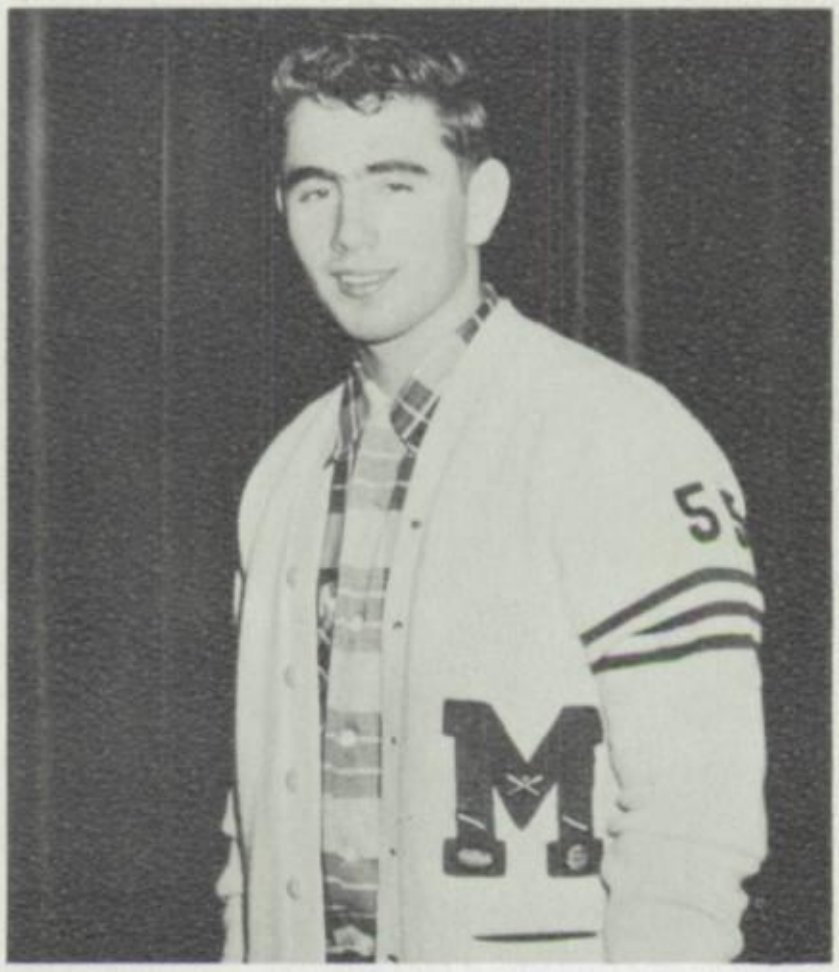
"Wonderful One(s)"

Les Stimka contributed a great deal to the school's prestige by holding the state wrestling championship in his weight.

Dorothy Lothian received the coveted Daughters of the American Revolution award given to the senior girl with the most admirable qualities.

"Thespian of the Year," Mary Lynne Affleck, brought laughs to many through her roles in three all-school plays.

Carolyn Sharp, outstanding senior journalist, contributed greatly to the success of the "Bulldog."



Four year letterman, Ed Watson, earned many athletic honors including nomination to the West State football team.

Margie Sundal lent a great deal to the success of both the school and Community orchestra.

Being upperclassmen at last, the Junior class was really "Rolling Along." Soon after their "Return to Paradise" the class elections were held. Harvey Wolden became the "High and the Mighty." Van Youngquist was elected vice president; Nina Fry, secretary; and Don Jewett, treasurer.

The "Secret Love" of the Junior boys was discovered when they went "Crazy, Man, Crazy" over athletics. Many were able to be on the Varsity teams and earn a letter.

Twenty-five members of the class had "Teach Me Tonight" as their by-word and were members of Honor Society.

"The Big Dream" of all is money and "Somebody Wonderful" suggested to "Shake, Rattle, and Roll" after the games at the "Y" several times.

The Junior class looked like the "Peddler Man" collecting bottles for their drive. They netted over thirty dollars, but "Money Burns a Hole in Their Pockets" so it was spent on the "First Warm Day" in May for the "Junior Prom."

Reverend Jack Barker told the student body to "Count Your Blessings" at the Thanksgiving assembly presented by the Junior class, November 23.

Buz Roberts and Gretchen Behrns worked "Side By Side" as A.S.B. officers bringing honor to the class.

Charlene Abraham and Gretchen Behrns were among the group leading us to "Sing a Little Song" at the games. It seems they always had a "Song in Their Heart."

The faculty advisors included Mr. Paul Reiman, Mr. Joseph Norlie, Miss Byrl Warrick, Mrs. Cornelia Hodson, Mr. Gordon Fisher and Mr. Hilding Nelson.

"Don't Fence Us In" is our cry as we prepare to "Cross Over the Bridge" into our last year of high school.

"I Want To Live A Little"

Being assembled together again in "This Ole House" the class of "57" elected the following officers to work "Side by Side": president, David Schink; vice president, Barbara Logsdon; secretary, O. A. Gilbert; treasurer, Carolyn Deming.

Fortunate was the class to have as their advisors: Mr. Dene Lawson, chairman; Mr. Joe Day, Miss Bertha Compton, Mr. John Owen, Miss Minnie Gerriets, Mr. Wilbur Wigner, Mr. Joe Murphy.

Since "Little Things Mean a Lot" to the class treasury, a dance was sponsored at the "Y", and the group had charge of the concessions at several games.

Around February when school was getting "Monotonous", the Sophomore assembly was presented.

The Sophomore class had many "High and Mighty" honor students "Sitting on Top of the World." They were also well represented in many different school organizations. They were successful in all their athletic activities. Many of the boys earned their junior varsity letters.

The Sophomore class is eagerly looking forward to "Return to Paradise" as upper classmen.

"Green Years"

Looking forward to three more year of "School Days", the Freshman class got off to a good start by electing Jim Day, president; Susan Nelson, vice president; Myrna Richardson, secretary, and Alice Larson, treasurer.

"Mr. Touchdown" must have been on the freshman football team with their season's record of two wins, two losses, and one tie.

With the fine couselling given by Mrs. Beth Sizelove, chairman, Miss Ruth Lisle, Mrs. Miriam Nelson, Mr. Charles Easton, Mr. Bruce Parker, and Mr. Don Mahaffey, it was very easy for them to put on their class assembly April Fool's Day.

Although the seniors may think the freshmen are "Too Young", they are looking forward to the coming years when they will be "A Little Bit Independent."

"Worry, Worry, Worry," is what they do.

Fulfilling the educational needs of our youth is the primary concern of the Board of Directors and Administrators. To prepare our boys and girls to equal the challenge of useful and responsible citizenship is our ideal. As we progress with our present enrollment we must also vision and plan to meet the needs of future growth.

This year's School Board composed of Chairman Mrs. Gladys Larson, Leroy Cleave, E. C. Comings, Earl Hanson, Lawrence Knight, James Leckenby, Ira Marshall, H. A. Moldstad, Roger Morisson, and Gene Olson, and administrators, Superintendent Wendell L. Phipps, Principal William E. Gurney, and Vice Principal Ray Cowell have endeavored to strengthen the school program with the aid of efficient and devoted teachers and personnel. Together we seek to provide the best education for our young people and to help them grow toward the best ideals.

Conferring before a board meeting are, seated: Mr. Knight, Mr. Leckenby. Standing: Mr. Phipps, Mr. Morrison, Mr. Comings, Mr. Hanson, Mrs. Larson, Mr. Cleave, and Mr. Olson. Not pictured are Mr. Marshall and Mr. Molstad.

School administrators pondering a well-known educational truth are Mr. W. T. Phipps, Superintendent, Mr. Ray Cowell, vice principal, and Mr. W. E. Gurney, principal.

We administrators have the privilege of working with you on student problems and activities. It is our earnest hope that the effort and genuine interest we have put forth has enriched your education and citizenship training, and that, as a result, you will be better able to meet new challenges.

Thank you for your friendly cooperation.

"You'll Never Get Away"

They're Working
"SIDE BY SIDE"

"I'll entertain a motion," said Don White, A.S.B. president, "that the students aid Mr. Easton in spearheading the March of Dimes drive."

"I so move," replied Van Youngquist, student council representative, and, with a second to the motion supplied by representative Nina Fry, the deed was done.

Each year the student council faces up to numerous situations confronting the student body, and whenever a problem is within the jurisdiction of the council, it means Mr. Gurney, the principal, can sit back and relax. The situation is well in hand.

Composed of the A.S.B. officers, plus the losing A.S.B. presidential candidate from the preceding spring election, and one representative from each council class, the student council meets every two weeks to expound on the virtues or woes of each committee, such as Building and Grounds or Assemblies. The net result is one of progress and a smoothly functioning program.

With every student in a council class, and with every council class having a representative on the council, this organization solves school problems and builds leaders as it trains all students in truly democratic processes of self-government.
